Growing Up Jewish in Jamaica

On Tuesday, November 1, 2011 at the B'nai Brith House on Hove Street, about 70 members and guests attended an interesting meeting on "Growing up Jewish in Jamaica." Guest speaker Wilfred Lindo spoke of his experiences growing up in Jamaica, the culture, the attitude and tension of being Jewish.

He recited a poem believed to be written by his father that has been his strength on how he views life and his inter-action with other people.

Your Name

It came from your father,
It was all he had to give
So it's yours to use and cherish,
For as long as you may live.

If you lose the watch he gave you,
It can always be replaced
But a black mark on your name son,
Can never be erased.

It was clean the day you took it,
And a worthy name to bear
When I got it from my father,
There was no dishonour there.

So make sure you guard it wisely,
After all is said and done
You'll be glad the name is spotless,
When you give it to your son.

Willy Lindo

Are You On This List

I would like to acknowledge all those members who are celebrating anniversaries or birthdays but can only do that if I know the information – all the information. There have been some who have given me the date of their anniversary but neglected to indicate the year – maybe they are trying to forget it!

Being the spouse of a member does not mean your birthday will be recognized unless the QUESTIONNAIRE is filled out. I am listing ALL those names in which I have a questionnaire. If you can't remember if you filled one out properly – do it again and I'll check for you. This is a free service.

This event took place at the Fort York Armoury in Toronto. The Honourary Chair was The Honourable Peter McKay and the Mistress of Ceremonies was Amanda Lang, CBC News Correspondent.

L.M.O.L. had a table in which Shura Vorona, Zvi Wainsteim, Sharon Haberman, Dennis Tolson, Stan Beder, Max Berg and Shoshana Elharar represented the Lodge.

November General Meeting

Sunday, November 13, 2011

MARC SALTZMAN

Guest Speaker

If you missed the November meeting, you missed a treat. Welcome to the new world of smart phones and smart tablets and smart television. Marc asked his smart phone a question: "Do you love me?" The phone answered: "You're being silly."

Thanks Max Berg for arranging this program. One of the most entertaining.

I Want To Be Your Personal Trainer

A joint program of
L.M.O.L. and DON MILLS LODGE
 by Alvin Abram

For those who didn't come, you missed hearing an educational and informative speaker. Grant Dinuk is a personal trainer who works with seniors. In the time he spoke, he demonstrated some simple methods in reducing pain without medication.

One of the most painful experiences almost everyone suffers from is just getting up off a chair. Grant demonstrated how to get up and not have pain. Imagine standing without grimacing in pain. The information was so simple that it was a shame that only 50 in attendance were able to see what to do. And several tried the procedure and were amazed.

More will be revealed in the next Observer.

WANTED!!!

L.M.O.L. is looking for a paid secretary to take the Minutes at our 10 Executive Meetings and 4 General meetings and to do our mailing – both Internet and hard copy. Executive responsibilities: 7 hours/mo – General responsibilities: 3 hours/mo; on those months there is a General Meeting. All out-of-pocket expenses are returned. The year's compensation could be as much as $2,000. If you know of anyone or are interested, please call:
